Business men's meeting this evening.

—Wrestling match at Leppin's hall this evening.

—J. A. Sleeper, Esq., of Chicago, spent Sunday in this city.

—There were three marriages at the county jail to-day.

—Mr. J. A. Dennison spent Sunday in Belvidere, Ill., where his family is now visiting.

—Mr. F. W. Coon, of the Edgerton Reporter, made the Gazette a friendly call this afternoon.

—Miss Jennie E. Durbin, of Milwaukee, is the guest of Miss Belle Wade in the first ward.

—Mrs. H. C. Tilton and Miss Jennie Tilton have returned from their visit to relatives in Milwaukee.

—Two or three fights between young men, were heard of yesterday, but no damage has been reported.

—Mr. Malcolm McCulloch, of Chicago, is in the city, visiting his brother, John McCulloch, of the Gazette.

—One drunk in the municipal court to-day. In default of payment he was sent to jail for three days.

—The Catholic Cornet band will be at Leppin's hall this evening and furnish music between bouts at the wrestling match.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32 hold their regular weekly meeting this evening, lodge room in the Judd block, North Main street.

—Ogden H. Fethers, Esq., left yesterday to attend some legal business in Chicago and Madison. He will return to-morrow evening.

—Mr. J. C. Card, of Portage, Wis., is registered at the Grand. He is connected with the Northwestern Railway and is here on business for that road.

—Postoffice Inspector J. D. King spent Sunday with his family in this city. He was accompanied by his friend Mr. G. H. Waterbury, of Denver, Colorado.

—State Senator S. L. Lord, of Edgerton, was a welcome caller at the Gazette office this afternoon, and will attend the meeting of the Business men's association this evening.

—Mrs. Zeininger has just received the first shipment of the celebrated Diamond brand oysters, which she is prepared to serve in every style at her restaurant opposite the Gazette office.

—The muscular giants will have another meeting this evening at Leppin's hall. Those who admire exhibitions of extraordinary human strength and endurance will not fail to be present.

—Mr. W. A. Johnson, of Westfield, Mass., is registered at the Grand hotel. He is a member of the firm of Johnson & Son, and is here to arrange for putting the pipe organ in the Baptist church.

—Mrs. Charles Horn, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Milwaukee for the past month, returned home Saturday evening, and the first assistant engineer of the fire department is correspondingly happy.

—The Evansville Enterprise—Miss Carrie Winkley and Miss Lou Bates, niece of A. O. Bates of this place, both of Evansville, have been guests of Mr. Bates' family for several days past, returning to their home yesterday.

—County Judge Amos F. Pritchard returned Saturday evening from a two months' sojourn among the scenes of his youth. He visited many points of interest in the east, and will commence work again greatly benefited in health.

—Mr. Lloyd Murdoch, proprietor of the corn exchange scales has removed the old scales and is now putting in the new for a brand new set. They will be four ton Fairbanks and will be built up in a style which will render them perfectly true and reliable.

—Mr. J. B. Hayes, of Chicago, has recently entered the employ of Messrs. Bassett & Echlin, and will represent them on the road. Mr. Hayes is an old soldier and a man of fine character.

—About ten o'clock Saturday night John O'Neil entered Kane's saloon on South Main street, and tried to turn things upside down. He struck an old man a severe blow over the eye, for which he was arrested by Marshal Hogan. He was brought into the municipal court to-day, but the case was continued for one week.

—Mr. Stanley B. Smith returned yesterday from a month's vacation which he spent in the east. He was in New York city for ten days where he saw the obsequies of General Grant, and the thousands of other sights which attract western eyes. A week was passed at Saratoga and another week in Massachusetts. He reports the business outlook as favorable, and his own condition as hopeful.

—Mr. Robert Campbell, of Company A, now has the medal for the championship of the First Regiment, on fast skating. On last Tuesday he won the prize at the Waukesha skating rink, against a representative from each company. The distance, which was somewhat over a mile, was covered in four minutes, and his nearest competitor was nearly five laps in the rear.

—The wrestling match at Leppin's hall this evening will consist of six bouts, unless the Frenchman (Gretski) succeeds in winning the four first falls, the agreement or match being that he is to down Greek George two out of three, and Graham two out of three. The wrestling is worth seeing, and the admission being placed at twenty-five and thirty-five cents for reserved seats, will undoubtedly fill the hall.

—The walls of the first ward fire cistern are completed and the workmen are turning now the brick arch, which will be two feet thick, requiring 12,000 bricks. This cistern is 40 feet long, 12 feet wide and 10 feet deep, not measuring the arch, and will hold upwards of 30,000 gallons. This cistern is in a good location and will be of great service to the fire department in furnishing water for the extinguishment of fires in the first ward.

—Nectarines are the latest fruit to be introduced into this city and the only wonder is that anything so delicious should be kept out so long. The fruit has something the appearance of an apple but the pulp is exactly like a peach excepting it has a much more delicate flavor. J. A. Dennison has just received the first lot and anyone who has an appetite for fruit should take occasion to sample a basketful.

—Mr. F. H. Turner, of Soda Springs, Idaho territory, was a caller at the Gazette office to-day. Mr. Turner is an old Rock Prairie man, who was compelled to go west on account of his health. He located in Idaho six years ago and with a brother is engaged in stock raising. His health is fully restored as the result of clear mountain air and mineral water, the latter being strong enough to foam without the aid of a soda fountain.

—Mr. Pat Connors, who owns some property on Division street, is making some valuable improvements in the way of grading the street, which will result in opening a new street for the benefit of the second ward. Mr. Connors is entitled to a good deal of credit and the ward would do well to assist in the enterprise, which is for the public good. If the ward committee should send up a couple of teams and two or three men Mr. Connors could use them to good advantage.

—Mr. George Burman and bride (nee Miss Jennie Barker) arrived in the city on Saturday afternoon, and spent the Sabbath visiting the family of the bride's uncle, Hon. J. A. Blount, of the third ward. They left on the morning train for Chicago, and thence for their home at Waverly, Iowa. Mrs. Burman, in years past has made several visits to this city, and her many friends extend their warmest congratulations to her and her husband.

—The following from the Council Bluffs department of the Omaha Bee reminds us of a proclamation issued in this city years ago, at the time the council resolved to exterminate unmuzzled dogs. The proclamation as published, that reads: "All owners of dogs found running at large after a certain date, would be shot. Here is the Omaha item: 'The anti-prohibitory tendencies of the council will creep out. A recent resolution, intended to order certain streets filled to grade, reads, as published, 'that the owners be filled to grade.'"

—Rockford Register: "Mrs. L. A. Hartwell has used the city and William Croft for $3,000. She stepped in a hole in the sidewalk, corner of East State and Second streets, and injured her knee so badly, she claims, that she had to give up her business. Michael Tierney was thrown from his wagon, corner of State and Wyman streets, and he has also brought suit for the same sum, claiming that the city did not make the street car company fix their rails properly. John C. Garver is attorney in each case." There are many worn-out sidewalks in Janesville, which may result to similar suits in our city. The piles of gravel at the west end of Wall street is another open trap for some stranger to fall into.

—The city editor of the Rockford Register possesses the nerve to perpetrate the following upon the public: "The startling report [prevailed this morning] that at a depth of 1075 feet the artesian well was giving out. Those who have watched the work with great interest and anticipation of a sufficient supply of pure water for the city, were morose. It was not thought possible after the steady flow that the well could ever give out, and the greatest regret was expressed. A Register representative hastened to the water works and discovered that it was indeed true. The well was giving out—over 250 gallons of water a minute, and the flow steadily increasing. Don't shoot."

—Sample copies of the new postal cards have been sent, and it is announced that they will be on sale in a couple of weeks. The cards are of the same size as the cards which the republican administration promulgated, but differ from them in some respects. The color of the domestic cards is lighter than the old style, almost approaching cream color. On the address side is a scroll bearing the words "United States" and a row of stars, supposed to represent the number of states which cast their electoral vote for Cleveland. The stamp on the right hand upper corner bears the head of Thomas Jefferson bound with laurels. The printing ink used is a pinkish brown, almost terra cotta. The old card bore the crest of the Goddess of Liberty for its head and lacked the row of stars. It was also printed in black ink.

—The Bower City Rifles and the Janesville Guards arrived home from Camp Rusk, at Waukesha, at six o'clock on Saturday evening. The Rifles in their new dress uniform formed in line at the depot and marched down West Milwaukee street to their armory, making a splendid showing. The Rifles have received many compliments from the press during their stay in camp, and were credited with being the best drilled company in the regiment. Their new uniform was the handsomest in the regiment. The announcement was a success in every particular. The Milwaukee Sunday Telegraph pays the regiment the following compliment: "Colonel Britton and his regiment passed a busy week at Waukesha. It is said that the regiment, which has had five encampments, did more real work during the stay at Waukesha than it did in the four other encampments combined. The Sunday Telegraph's watchful National Guard editor was present throughout the week and will have something to say next week."

—To-day, Monday, August 31, 1885, Dr. F. D. Seiber, of Emerald Grove, resigns his practice to Dr. Ferris of Beloit, and will leave with his family in a few weeks for California. Dr. Seiber is a graduate of Rush medical college of Chicago, class of '70. After a few years of practice in western Iowa his health failed him. He then gave up business and devoted three years to the restoration of his health. He next settled at Emerald Grove, June, 1882, since which time he has acquired a large and lucrative business in that and adjoining towns, which in itself is the best possible tribute that could be paid to his skill as a physician. He is gifted with an apt and quick perception in diagnosing disease, and a ready discretion in administering its remedy. Always considerate, courteous and kind to his patients, they have become greatly attached to him, and much regret that he must leave them. Outside of his profession he is known as an honorable, prompt and upright business man, full of energy and public spirit. Emerald Grove is chiefly indebted to him for his telephone, and largely for its public hall. He greatly regrets leaving such a large circle of friends, but makes this change solely for benefitting his wife's health. She is suffering from pulmonary troubles and cannot longer endure the severity of this climate without great risk to her life. He hopes in a milder and ever atmosphere, she may be fully restored to health. Their friends all heartily pray that his object may be attained, and that he and his interesting and accomplished wife may live long, happy and prosperous in the new country whither they are going.

MATRIMONIAL.

HOLLEY—CHAPMAN.

The residence of Mrs. Amanda E. Chapman, Washington street, first ward, was the scene of a most happy event on Saturday evening, it being the occasion of the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss Holley M. Chapman and Mr. L. F. Holley, of Chicago. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge, of the Baptist church, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends of the interested parties. Mr. and Mrs. Holley left on this morning's train for Chicago, at which place they will make their future home. Mr. Holley being an engineer on the Chicago and Rock Island railway. The many friends of the happy bride will wish her and her husband a long, prosperous and happy life.

TITLES—PYE.

At the Myers house in this city, on Saturday evening, August 29, Mr. Wm. F. Pye, of Rockford, Ill., and Miss E. M. Pye, of Clinton, Wis., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, the Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge, of the Baptist church officiating.

The Circuit Court.

The testimony in the Bleasdale divorce case was finished Saturday, but the argument will not be taken up until Judge Bennett returns from Jefferson. Tomorrow he will take up the case of Russell against the Janesville Picking and Preserving Co. again. He goes to Jefferson next Monday.

Four ounces of Beef.

This small quantity of health promoter is the "amount" generally used for an economical prescription of beef tea, so when an east side market man answered the telephone one day last week and noted down an order for a good sized family, he was a little surprised to read "send up a four ounce rib roast." He was unable to carve so fine an order in the locality designated, and when the family with their guests gathered around the festive board to the number of a dozen or more the small roast in the center of the table seemed a good deal embarrassed and the good natured host, a little surprised, looking across to his better half, he said: "Where is the four-rib roast, my dear, that I ordered this morning by telephone, this appears to be a fair sample, but lacks development?"

"Yes, John," his wife replied, "the sample is all right, and the boy that brought it up apologized for so large a piece and said the order was for four ounces but this would probably weigh a couple of pounds, and said he would take back what we couldn't use. I told him I would refer the matter to you."

The four ounce roast was carefully laid away for future reference.

A Model Dining Hall.

Usher's new cafe under the Merchant's and Mechanics' Saving bank at the west end of the Milwaukee street bridge was thrown open to the public to-day. The room is large and pleasant and very attractive; the location is desirable and with the reputation Mr. Usher has established as a first class caterer, there is no reason why the new restaurant should not succeed. Call in and look over the new rooms, and try the table.

TEMPERATURE FOR AUGUST.

The reader may, perhaps, find some comfort in reading the following table of figures giving the range of the thermometer at 7 a. m. and at 1 p. m. during the month of August:

Reduction in the Price of Gas.

To Gas Consumers: Gas consumed on and after October 1, 1885, will be billed as usual at $3.50 per thousand feet, but if paid promptly to collector when bills are presented, there will be a discount of 50 cents per thousand instead of 30 cents as heretofore, thus making the net price of gas 82 per thousand feet.

H. MERRITT, Sup't. New Gas Light Co., Janesville, Wis., August 28, 1885.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer indicated 65 degrees above zero. Clear, with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 73 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with west wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 62 and 75 degrees above zero.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 57 degrees above zero. Clear, with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 72 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 65 and 76 degrees above zero.

Sunday Excursions.

In the Baptist church yesterday morning Dr. Hodge spoke eloquently on the subject of Sunday observances, and in the course of his remarks made a number of exceedingly just criticisms on the prevailing usages. (He took his text from Isaiah xlviii, 13, 14. "If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing thine own ways or finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words. Then shall thou delight thyself in the Lord and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob, thy father.")

He spoke strongly against all who keep open stores on the Sabbath, but did not fail to notice the numerous classes, who, with curtains drawn, take account of stock or post the ledger.

The Sunday excursions, however, afforded the principal subject for his sermon, and on them he chiefly dwelt. Besides the demoralizing tendencies of the Sabbath desecration on those who took part, there was also a much greater influence for bad exercised in the young people who were just learning to devote one day in seven to the Lord.

Those who had any interest in the young people, should on that account withhold their support from such enterprises. The press especially should discourage all such affairs, but in many cases their action in the matter was for rather than against. He said in referring to Green Lake excursion, that one modest editor ventured to inquire whether it was right, and was straightway taken to task by another local paper in a manner which to say the least, was not in accordance with the sentiments of the Janesville people.

The audience was very large both morning and evening, chairs being necessary in the morning to accommodate the large number of hearers.

The Green Apple Remedy. Medical experts have in vain attempted to decide the cause for the intense antagonism between the small boy's stomach and the ordinary green apple. During an elaborate and minute investigation upon this subject recently held, many matters of genuine interest to lay people were brought to light, and in the interest of science the committee was instructed to publish the result of its work. The report states:

I. That the ordinary green apple is a natural fruit intended for human consumption; that it is composed of matter solid and liquid, generally wormy, a perfectly legitimate work of creation, and when undisturbed had no injurious or dangerous effects upon the family of man.

II. That the small boy is a natural fruit, not intended, though at times used, for human consumption, composed of matter, solid and liquid, generally wormy; in the majority of cases a perfectly legitimate work of creation, and when undisturbed had no injurious or dangerous effects upon the family of man.

III. That while some difference was found between their physical proportions, yet many of their chief characteristics were identical.

IV. That the small boy while lacking in discretion is ambitious and ready to wage war with any army of apples, while the apple, lacking discretion, has an ample fund of revenge, which, coupled with great refractory power when thoroughly pulverized, enables it to down the small boy, who may have but a short time before so victoriously downed the green apple.

V. That the small boy has no malicious designs upon the green apple, while it is an established fact that nothing will so quickly madden the green apple as the process of being munched and so transmitted to the fermenting tank of the small boy.

The committee therefore states that while the present process of construction is continued in these productions, medical science is unavailing to relieve either the green apple or the boy, and recommends that in all families where such articles are simultaneously cultivated, that a composition of boiler iron and barbed wire should be used in the creation of the small boy's stomach, and all apples should be munched semi-weekly from April 1st to August 1st in each year, with a combination of paregola, peppermint, and soothing syrup.

It is stated by the committee that if these recommendations are generally adopted, a warm attachment will undoubtedly spring up between these hostile parties and there will then be a perceptible decrease in the records of colic, in a few years the resting of small boys will be a domestic pleasure, devoid of all the distressing details which now so surely follow in every instance, where there is a compound of small boy and green apple.
